Dreams and Goals in Western Trends

There is one thing in a dream you should have is faith.....You should ALWAYS have God inside your heart. Your dreams and goals do not become a reality unless you take action.

I know that I have decided to take a path in life that I plan to put a 100% of my heart in to it, because I know that God will be with me the whole way....I have no fear, I just know that when you are doing something in life that you absolutely love so much and you leave your mark....that is when you know that you have met your goal!

The greatest feeling in the world is to have your passions in line with your purpose, goals and dreams you are working towards, waking up every day excited about what the future may bring. Life is full of surprises and don't be surprised when you run past that timer at a big rodeo or a horse show and the announcer says, "that is the new time to beat" or "and there is your new leader". Now that my friend is a feeling that you can't explain unless you have been there! You just have to experience it! I can tell you....ITS AWESOME!!!

Hello to everyone! I have wanted to write something on Dreams and Goals for a while but just didn't really have the right mind set to do it. I feel like it's the right time to do it! This goes out to all those Barrel Racers that have a Dream and a Goal to make it to the top!

Every barrel racer gets nervous before they run.....I know! I get nervous....and if you don't get that way....hang your spurs up because you have lost the fun. I take my hat off before every run....I say my prayer to God, please watch over me and Classy and keep us safe with a good clean run, Thank You Amen. I know that when I am at a rodeo walking my horse waiting patiently for them to call my name...my hearts beating so hard, along with my horses heart, we nervously wait. Then they call my name, I give my horse a kiss and say lets do it! We run and make a good clean run as we pass the timer...I thank God for keeping us safe.

There is a road of life we travel on full of dreams and goals we all set. Some people just dream it and some set out the goal to fulfill their dreams....You may not totally fill those goals but if you put 100% of your heart in to it, you will make it real!

Just remember in barrel racing...there is 1 dream to fulfill, but it takes 2 hearts to get there....You and Your horse. Just believe in yourself and have faith and you can accomplish anything you set out to do.
