

Barks N Bits

with our favorite Jack Russel Terrier... Bella & Miss Maybelline!

It's a 3-Ring Circus Around this Place

That's right, I'll be the first to admit it... living here is never less than a good source of conversation (obviously.) I mean, i seem to have some pretty crazy stuff to share with you people each month. Can you imagine what I don't let you in on?

Before we go to much farther, let me just point out that the picture at the top there is not me. That is my new friend, Cotton. He looks a whole lot like me, but he is not a Jack Russell Terrier, he is a Rat Terrier (although I've yet to see him terrorize any rats.)

Cotton is visiting with his person for a few months. And to think I was worried about the rooster moving in...ha! Now I have a "look alike" with a constant smirk on his face.

Oh, I know, the people think he is as cute as can be with his underbite. Hey, I can show my teeth too...wanna see? Just kidding, I really like Cotton. He is a little more mellow, like me, and we get a kick out of watching Chuck the Rooster chase that nosy little weiner-dog, Miss Maybelline around. I'm telling you, that never gets old!! (3-ring circus!!!)

I'm thinking I need to look into starting a YouTube Account and videoing some of the craziness that goes on around here. I'd probably end up in Hollywood on some reality TV show with all of the "likes" I'd get.

Until next month,
Thinking of a YouTube name....
