

Barks N Bits

with our favorite Jack Russel Terrier... Bella
& Miss Maybelline

What A Crew

That's left to right: Chuck the Rooster, Freckles, Duke, Bella (me), Lisa (he's a Tom cat), Maybelline (see her ready to run from kitty) and Sara (ready to pounce Miss Maybelline).

Yep, that's us...all of us (minus a few kitties) just a typical day hanging out at the farm.

Honestly, we all get along pretty well. There is the occasional pounce from a kitty on to Maybelline that send her running and yelping where I wish I could insert a video clip for your entertainment.

Things are a little less lively during the cold weather for me. I'll admit that I tend to spend more to the people. She has no sense of humor.

Then there are the daily arguments between Chuck and Duke. I'm not sure what they are always arguing about, but it is usually Chuck flapping his wings at Duke until Duke gets his fill and gives Chuck a piece of his mind. This is time inside the warm house when it's cold outside. (You all should know that by now.) Maybelline isn't too bad to snuggle with, she gives off a lot of heat!

Until next month, I'll just hanging out with the crew and trying to keep warm!

Merry Christmas!!
